AdoptionWorks

What is AdoptionWorks?

AdoptionWorks is a fully-licensed child placing agency that provides full infant domestic adoption services. AdoptionWorks has been conducting adoption since 1967 in the DFW metroplex. AdoptionWorks serves the entire adoption triad by providing services to the adoptee, adoptive parent(s), and birth family.

What are AdoptionWorks Post Adoption Support Groups?

We welcome children and teens who have been legally adopted for at least 6 months. Groups are divided into Littles (ages 5-8), Middles (ages 9-12), Teens (ages 13-17) and Adults. All children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian who will participate in the adult support group to discuss the special needs of their children, explore effective parenting skills and connect with other adoptive parents. Licensed counselors and trained facilitators will lead the post adoption support groups.

What Are AdoptionWorks Post Placement Support Groups?

AdoptionWorks has partnered with Lifetime Healing to provide free post placement care to women who have chosen to make an adoption plan for their child. Whether you placed your child one week ago, or years and years ago, we want to invite you to sit knee to knee with other women and experience healing. Our free support group meets once per month at our Dallas location.

Who Can Benefit from Triad Counseling?

Any member of the adoption triad can benefit from the clinical counseling services offered at AdoptionWorks. Licensed therapists who are adoption competent are prepared to walk with any member of the adoption triad during any phase of the adoption journey through individual or family counseling as well as play therapy. Whether you are adopted, placed your child for adoption, or adopted a child(ren), we are prepared to help your family.
